Non Executive Board Member

Profile

Full name:	Pedro Simões de Almeida Bissaia Barreto
Nationality:	Portuguese
Year of birth:	1966

Training

Pedro Barreto holds a degree in Business Management from Universidade Católica Portuguesa and attended the Executive Training Program at Stanford University.

Professional Experience

He pursued his professional activities throughout the five-year period during which he attended the Management course at Universidade Católica Portuguesa. During this time, he spent the first four years in the IT systems department of Soporcel-Sociedade Portuguesa de Celulose, now known as Navigator, and the fifth year at Banco BPI, an institution where he remained from October 1988 to March 2024. In the initial ten years at Banco BPI, he advanced his career primarily in the Commercial and Marketing sectors, and was appointed Central Marketing Director in November 1998, a position he held until March 2004. In March 2004, he became a member of the Executive Committee of Banco BPI, and from that date until his departure, he exercised administrative functions across various areas: from 2004 to 2010 in the Retail Banking division, from 2010 to 2017 in the Operations division, and from 2017 to 2024 in the Relationship Banking division. In a non-executive capacity, he served as Vice-Chairman of BCI, a leader in the Mozambican banking market, since 2013, and held administrative positions at Unicre and SIBS between 2014 and 2017, as well as at Allianz Portugal from mid-2016 to 2017. He is the President of the Jury for the COTEC-BPI SME Innovation Award, President of the Jury for the National Agriculture Award, President of the Jury for the National Tourism Award—each held under the High Patronage of the Government—and a Member of the General Council of COTEC.
